Commencement of the National Academy of Sciences, 1863
 The National Academy of Sciences was organized in 1863 by a group of leading scientists and scholars who were concerned with the advancement of science and the education of the public.
 The Academy has since become one of the most prestigious organizations in the United States, and its members have played a key role in the development of many of the most important scientific and technological advances of the past century.
