

CORPORATE SOCIAL POLICY

PURPOSE

To conduct an integrated social management that contributes to the sustainability, business and legitimacy of ISA and its companies, besides playing a key role in building a favorable environment for sustainable development.

PRINCIPLES

- We comply with and respect the laws, conventions, agreements, treaties and commitments voluntarily undertaken in the countries where we operate.
- We know that the society, in its diverse groups, cultures and territories, is affected by our activities.
- We identify and define our stakeholder groups, which helps us to plan and implement actions that build solid relations based on mutual recognition, respect and participation in order to run the business operations and processes.
- We contribute to the creation of value for society and address significant topics, aligning expectations and commitments, based on respect and the defense of human rights, as well as integral and sustainable human development and collective interest.
- We make responsible social investments that prepare communities to manage their own development and that strengthen the company through public-private alliances so that we can minimize the impacts caused by our activities, considering our economic and technological resources.
- We manage the social impacts and risks in order to run our business.
- We act in a socially responsible manner with regard to asset management and while negotiating easements, and always respect the human dignity of land owners.
- We promote, and extend to our suppliers and service providers, compliance with these social principles and obligations.
